WHERE IS THE GIRL CHING CHONG?

Disappearance Which May Have to Do With a Slave Case.

A Chinese servant girl in the family of Yee Yap, the well known merchant, still spell, order your soda disappeared yesterday shortly after noon and up to a late hour last night had not been found. Yee Yap, who resides on Buckley lane, reported the matter at police headquarters and offorts were made by the department to aid Yee Yap in his search, but to no

The girl is called Sing Chong and is about fourteen years of age and has been in the family of Yee Yap about five years. She was given in his charge by the father of the girl. The father also assisted in yesterday's search.

There is believed to be a deep-laid plot behind the disappearance of Sini Chong. She has been in the habit at going out almost every day and visit ing the Chinese stores near by on little errands. It was this fact which gavthe family no uneasiness when so failed to put in an appearance for at hour or so, but afterwards they became alarmed.

It is known that two Chinese, one of hem a cook in the family of one of lawali's officials, have been endeavorng to have Yee Yap arrestel as being the owner of a slave girl, the one who has since disappeared. Yesterday both these Chinese went to an attorney and asked if he could not bring about the arrest of Yee Yap. The attorney heard their story, but did not give them any promise, Both Chinese are men who annual meeting of the Honolulu are looked upon as somewhat dangere, hid, will be held on Sat- ous in the Chinese colony and to a cerpremier s, at 11 o'clock at the tain extent their stories are discred-

The strange disappearance of Sing Chong, occurring on the same day when the two Chinese were making a diligent effort to have the heat of the family put under arrest for alleged violation of the United States statutes or John Walton Lawson will con- relating to involuntary servitude, seems significant to the police.

CAUGHT A BURGLAR.

Good Work of the Chinese Police Officer Apana.
